Dear Seth Schwartz,

Please be advised that this review is based on our understanding, from the information you provided upon filing, that upon use, this communication (or the web page or electronic communication where the communication will appear) will: i) prominently disclose the name of the member firm, ii) explain the relationship between the member firm and any non-member entity or individual also named in the communication, and iii) if other names are used, explain which products or services are being offered by the member firm, as required by FINRA Rule 2210(d)(3). If our understanding is incorrect, please notify us as additional comments may be necessary.

The communication submitted appears consistent with applicable standards.
